Chapter 713, Statutes of 1979, as amended by Chapter 530, Statutes of 1980, provides for counties to establish Victim Witness Assistance Programs. The District Attorney's Office has administered the Victim Witness Assistance Program for San Bernardino County since 1980.

The District Attorney's Office has entered into an agreement with the Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board to become an independent verifying unit for processing crime claims forms submitted by victims of crime through the Victim Witness Assistance Program. This agreement serves to reduce the amount of time to process victims' claims.
